BOYS FINALISTS

Peyton Dix

Briarcrest senior

Dix had a big senior year for the Saints, shooting 72 at the Division 2-AA West Region tournament to help his team to the championship. He then carded a 3-over 147 at state to tie for sixth place as Briarcrest finished tied for second, six strokes behind Chattanooga Baylor. Dix is a three-time all-metro performer.

Greg Gionfriddo CBHS senior

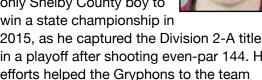

Another three-time allmetro choice, Gionfriddo's round of 75 was vital as the Brothers finished second in the D2-AA West Region tournament. He then shot 1-over 143 at state to place third, making him the top local finisher in the tournament.

Davis Irving St. George's sophomore

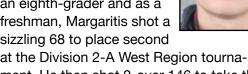

Irving — a two-time allmetro choice — was the only Shelby County boy to in a playoff after shooting even-par 144. His efforts helped the Gryphons to the team title as well, matching the West Region title they won earlier as Irving placed fourth.

Winston Margaritis St. George's sophomore

An all-metro choice as an eighth-grader and as a ment. He then shot 2-over 146 to take third at state as the Gryphons won the team title for the second time in three years and fifth time overall.

Goodman Rudolph MUS junior

The only repeat finalist from last season, Rudolph carded a 70 to take second place at the region. He then went on to state while competing as an individual and took fifth place with a two-day total of 2-over 146.

Boys Coach of the Year Jeff Ruffin, St. George's

Ruffin guided the Gryphons to the state championship in 2015, the school's second title in three years. It's his third coach of the year honor.

GIRLS FINALISTS

Jayna Choi

Houston freshman

Choi turned in a remarkable performance at state, shooting a course-record 64 on the final day to finish at 140 and win the AAA crown by four shots. Her efforts led Houston to the team championship for the first time in school history.

Abby Heck St. Agnes junior

Last year's golfer of the year, Heck added to her already-impressive career by shooting 70 to win the Division 2-AA West Region title before taking her second straight state crown with a 139. Her efforts also helped the Stars win team titles at both region and state.

Rachel Heck St. Agnes eighth grade

Only her older sister Abby kept Rachel from winning some championships in 2015. She shot 71 to finish runner-up at the Division 2-AA West Region tournament before shooting 145 at state to place second.

Aubree Jones Brighton junior

A two-time player of the year finalist and the 2013 winner, Jones won the District 13-AAA championship before going on to capture the Region 7 title with an impressive 4-under 68. She then finished runner-up at state, ending a run of two consecutive champion-

Baili Park

Houston sophomore

Park - who earned allmetro honors last season as a freshman - captured the District 15-AAA and Region 8 championships, shooting 74 and 73 respectively, while leading the Mustangs to team titles in both. She then carded a 150 at state, good for eighth overall.

Girls Coach of the Year

Cynthia Giannini, St. Agnes

It was another big year for St. Agnes golf, as Giannini's team captured the Division 2-AA West Region championship for the 11th straight year. The Stars then went on to claim their second straight state title to secure Giannini's eighth BOP award.
